‘Chocolate by Design’

visited Year 4 this week, who made a Chocolate Pizza....

4JA Group, having designed & made their pizza.

Year 4 had a fun activity making chocolate pizza! Why chocolate? Kaycee Atkinson (aged 8), 4CB, explains, we learned how food is digested using our chocolate pizza as an example. “The pizza goes through your mouth, down your throat, into the tummy, and the bit we don’t need we get rid of when we go to the toilet. The bits we need help us to grow and stay healthy.” Each group designed a smiley face pizza using jelly beans, white chocolate with sprinkles, strawberry jelly sweets and Smarties. “We all took a piece of the pizza home”.

“It was very exciting!” Said Kaycee.

“In Their Shoes”

British Values:

- We have a voice
- We will follow the rules
- Individual Liberty
- We will respect and accept others

Year 6 watched an educational performance from the Saltmine Theatre Company this week.

Lexi Lee (aged 10) 6CB reports:

‘In Their Shoes’ was about a girl called Stripe who didn’t get on with her neighbor. They were fighting over a shoe. The stripe warriors helped her to stand up to her neighbour, Spot. But it ended up with Spot getting hurt by the warriors. The story took Stripe on a variety of experiences where she met a lot of people and she began to realise this wasn’t right. Stripe and Spot then decided to help each other.

Lexi says, “it was a good experience telling us about dealing with trouble and not getting on with people. I liked getting squirted by water when we were the river and when Jim & Fred were acting silly”. She added; “putting the message across in an entertaining way taught us to think about others feelings and accepting them for the way they are.”
