December
We performed our assembly on the Anglo Saxons. We researched homes, entertainment, clothes and food for our information texts that we read out to our parents and the rest of the school.

spear (word) entertainment

The names of Anglo Saxon Gods became our names of the days of the week. Illuminated letters are used in Christian books and stained glass is used in churches.

Saxon Kings laid down laws to make sure their subjects behaved. Punishments were harsh. If you killed a member of a family

Thralls (slaves)
If men or women who were thralls became outlaws they would be:
• flogged 3 times
• scalded

Year 3 Production: 'It's a Cracker'

We in the office have thoroughly enjoyed hearing the year 3 children rehearse their songs in the hall this year. Some catchy tunes, which we seemed to hum all day. We are sure you felt the same and congratulate them on bringing together the traditional nativity story, including angels and shepherds, and a contemporary family Christmas dinner. As the crackers were pulled around the dinner table, the magic of Christmas was unwrapped.

Friends of Hasland Junior School

Christmas Shop:

We hope you will enjoy the wonderful gifts the children bought for their family and friends yesterday.

As well as getting a fantastic gift the shop raised over £205. Thank you for supporting the Friends and the School.

Coffee and Carols:

Each class sang popular festive songs to an audience enjoying not just the children singing, but also a hot drink and a slice of cake. Your support helped to raise £757, and we hope the event helped you to get into the festive mood.

School Disco:

The children enjoyed the end of term disco and we are pleased to say the event raised £569.

The Friends would like to wish you a Very Merry Christmas and to thank you for supporting all our events this term.
